Good evening John, in response to your questions to the. Municipal candidates.

Question three... 10

Question four.. 10

Question five....10... (I also believe they should be published in the local newspapers)

Question six... 10

Question seven ..10

I firmly believe that volunteer -based organizations are the backbone of every small town. Most municipalities cannot afford many things that the community needs. For the most part, volunteers who sit on committees, participate on boards, and give endless volunteer hours and PEOPLE power go unnoticed, and are rarely appreciated by the general population. I think as a governing body we need to utilize the power of the people who volunteer in our municipality. Should I be elected to Council one of my goals will be to help and work with local volunteers and the groups they represent. Most definitely, their efforts within the community need to be acknowledged as part of the collective that makes our community what it is.
